

Inner Angels and Demons

Good and evil aren't determined by others
Or how we interact with our fellow man;
They are determined entirely by man's
Own interaction with himself.

Yellow Terror

Duty— the kids are late
Duty to get them in on time
I'll be the one the boss berates
My pride is more important

Speeding around the corner
Much to my surprise
I create a scene of horror
A circular pyramid of tape

I created the caution
I created the chalk
Because of duty blinded
That girl will never walk
