

Day By Day

*Cold nights of the war
Day by day, millions dying
Day by day, many surviving
More food for the rats than for the people*

*Thousands of people getting burned
Thousands of people getting gassed
People getting tortured
For the perfect race, people die*

*Day by day, they look like skeletons
Thousands bleed for no reason
Some bleed for one reason
But only one knows why*

*Hundreds running like the wind for freedom
Running as fast as they can
Some can't run
Too hungry, too thirsty
Day by day*

*Sincerely,
JR MCCARTHY*
