A LOOK AT WHY THE UNITED STATES IS GOING TO IRAQ

M

ANY AMERICANS ARE NOT SURPRISED that the United States is going to war with Iraq. Many have been expecting American troops to enter Iraq for months now. However, many don't understand the reasons behind sending troops to Iraq. The United States and other coalition members have been planning to disarm the Iraqi military since the end of the first Gulf War. So what are our reasons for going to Iraq? And what's going on at home? See page 12 to learn the history of our military involvement in Iraq, what Billy Mitchell Air Force Base is doing to help the families of local soldiers, and take an inside look at Antioch Community High School students who are planning to enlist in the armed forces.
